

Friday, 1:30 PM to 3:15 PM

Detailed Listing

Factories, Homes, Cities: Rationalizing Space, Producing Men
Joseph C. Mink, University of Pennsylvania
Nature and Exhibitionary Order: Locke, Landscape, and the Ad Industry
Frank M. Coleman
Defining Sacred Spaces
Barbara A. Presnall, Texas Woman's University

Disc: Timothy W. Luke, Virginia Tech

8-6 UNDERSTANDING PALM BEACH COUNTY: POLITICAL SCIENCE IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Room: Continental Ballrm 4-Hilton
Co-sponsored by T-29

Chair: Burt L. Monroe, Indiana University, Bloomington
Laurel Elms, University of California, Berkeley

Papers: Did Votes Intended for Gore go to Buchanan? (and Other Stories)
Burt L. Monroe, Indiana University, Bloomington
Evidence of Excessive Buchanan Vote Share in Palm Beach County, Florida
Jonathan Wand, Cornell University
Kenneth W. Shotts, Northwestern University
Jasjeet Sekhon, Harvard University
Walter R. Mebane, Jr., Cornell University
Michael C. Herron, Harvard University
Lessons from Florida, 2000: It's the Heteroskedasticity, Stupid
Greg D. Adams, Carnegie Mellon University
Christina Fastnow, Chatham College
Prying Open the Ballot Boxes: Internet Driven Research on the 2000 Presidential Election Results
Robert Max Jackson, New York University
Helmut Norpoth, SUNY, Stony Brook
Eric D. Lawrence, George Washington University

Disc: 11-1 INSTITUTIONAL ARRANGEMENTS AND THEIR POLICY IMPLICATIONS IN EMERGING DEMOCRACIES

Room: Franciscan D-Hilton

Chair: Gabriella Montinola, University of California, Davis

Papers: Multiple Veto Players, Presidential Delegation, and the New Mexican Supreme Court
Beatriz Magaloni, Stanford University
Arianna Sanchez, ITAM
Constitutions, Electoral Rules and National Budgets in Transition Economies
Mikhail G. Filppov, Washington University in St. Louis
Veto Players and Corruption in Emerging Democracies
Josephine T. Andrews, University of California, Davis
Gabriella Montinola, University of California, Davis
What Motivates Conflict between Presidents and Congressional Majorities? Towards a Theory of Bargaining in the Legislative Process under Separation of Powers
Eric Magar, University of California, San Diego

Disc: Barbara Geddes, University of California, Los Angeles

11-27 ESTABLISHING JUSTICE AND THE RULE OF LAW IN NEW DEMOCRACIES

Room: Continental Parlor 9-Hilton

Chair: Rebecca Bill Chavez, Stanford University

Papers: Yemen: Law and Politics in Transition
Anthony Tirado Chase, Wheaton College

Does Truth Lead to Reconciliation? Testing the Causal Assumptions of the South African Truth and Reconciliation Process
James L. Gibson, Washington University
Law Versus the State: The Emergence of Constitutional Power in Egypt, 1979-2000
Tamir Moustafa, University of Washington
Politics and Judiciary in Comparative Perspective: A Pragmatic Approach for Analysis
Chung-li Wu, National Chung Cheng University

Disc: Anthony J. Gill, University of Washington
Lisa Hilbink, Princeton University

11-33 THE EFFECT OF THE ECONOMY ON PUBLIC OPINION AND VOTING IN NEW DEMOCRACIES

Room: Sutter A/B-Hilton

Chair: Harvey D. Palmer, University of Mississippi

Papers: Welfare and the Discriminating Public: Explaining Entitlement Attitudes in Post-Communist Europe
Christine S. Lipsmeyer, Belmont University
Sophisticated or Dazed Economic Voters? An Investigation of the Impact of Inflation in Latin America
Harvey D. Palmer, University of Mississippi
Holly T. Reynolds, University of Mississippi
Labor Voting and Voting for Labor: The Electoral Effects of Labor Market Creation
Natalia V. Tsvetkova, Harvard University
Economic Voting and Economic Expectations under Uncertainty: Limits of Traditional Economic Voting in New Democracies of Eastern and Central Europe
Yuliya V. Tverdova, Binghamton University, SUNY

Disc: Andrew Baker, University of Houston

11-40 COMPARATIVE ELECTORAL SYSTEMS

Room: Union Square 19-Hilton
Co-sponsored by 34-4

11-45 ECONOMIC CHANGE AND POLITICAL RESPONSE: THE POLITICS OF MARKET LIBERALIZATION

Room: Union Square 22-Hilton
Co-sponsored by 14-9

11-49 TAKING DEMOCRACY SERIOUSLY: THE ROLE OF POLITICAL PARTIES IN SOUTHEAST ASIA

Room: Union Square 1&2-Hilton
Co-sponsored by 12-3

12-3 TAKING DEMOCRACY SERIOUSLY: THE ROLE OF POLITICAL PARTIES IN SOUTHEAST ASIA

Room: Union Square 1&2-Hilton
Co-sponsored by 11-49

Chair: Allen D. Hicken, University of California, San Diego

Papers: Democracy and Social Welfare in Thailand
Erik Kuhonta, Princeton University
Strategic Entry, Linkage, and the Party System Formation: The Case of the Philippines
Yuko Kasuya, University of California, San Diego
Party Systems, Political Institutions, and Policy: Policy Making in Thailand and the Philippines
Allen D. Hicken, University of California, San Diego
Alleviating the Social Costs of the Financial Crisis in Southeast Asia: Economic Recovery or Public Spending?
Kimberly J. Niles, University of Colorado, Boulder

Disc: Andrew MacIntyre, University of California, San Diego